CYBERSECURITY ANALYST WITH A TRASH MATTRESS, STANDUP COMIC BY NIGHT

So listen: I have the lowest level security clearance which basically means I can look at myself in the mirror. No, in all seriousness it means I'm allowed to see sensitive information, in other words people's addresses. My clearance is about to expire, which is troubling because I have quite a few exes I've been meaning to stalk. I'll leave "few" and "exes" open to your own interpretation.

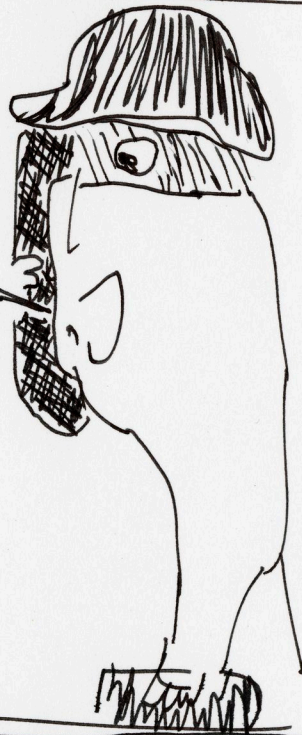

But here's some advice - if you're hurting for money and you want to buy a mattress you can save a lot by buying a nice thick cotton tarp then going to the town dump and collecting soft garbage and putting it inside the tarp. Throw it on the floor and get ready for the ZZZZs!

A TORSO PEOPLE COMEDIAN

I'm starting to think that our male man doesn't know what numbers are. Like he puts packages by the wrong doors, and different wrong doors each time. Permutations of wrong doors! Clearly he knows the alphabet because he's on the right street. But as for numbers it's probably all squiggles to him. Well if you're watching this, male man, here are the numbers from most to least squiggleness: 3, 8, 9 and 6. Then 5 and 2. Then 1, 4 and 7. If you look closely you'll see that they're not all the same. No this is not an optical illusion! And zero is a circle. And how many minutes I have left.
